New Linoleums!

You will find that most stores have a very narrow variety of Linoleums displayed at this season of the year-for the supply hasn't been nearly large enough to meet the demand.

We, however, bought a stock for a late shipment long before the general buying began and so are enabled to show you a large assortment of makes and patterns and to quote money-saving prices:

Prices 50c and 60c per square yd. for the Plain and Printed, and $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 for the Inlaid, the pattern going through to the back.

Sectional Book-Cases

The old-fashioned book-case was well enough years ago, but now you need something more modern. Space perhaps is valuable and you can't devote the room to the old kind. Here is your chance. One of our sectional book-cases is just the thing. Buy one or two tiers as your library warrants, then, as the number of your books increases add to your book-case.

Simple enough. Yes, and reasonable enough also. Prices from $2.75 per section, up.

Before deciding the make of the Sectional Book-Case you wish to install in your home, come where you can see the various makes and have the merits of each one explained to you.

We carry a full stock of Globe-Wernicke, Macey, Danner and Gunn's.

A proposed amendment to the city ordinances was read prohibiting anyone distributing printed circulars and advertising sheets or paper of any kind about the streets of the city, in the parks or on the walks or doorsteps of any person. On motion of Alderman Thurston the amendment was referred to the committee on legislation to report on at the next meeting. This proposed ordinance is for the purpose of doing away with in Barrs of distributing advertising bills, etc., promiscuously about the city. Alderman Thurston reported that Mrs. Michael Cook had reported to him that she had six hens killed by dogs last Sat-urday night and the matter was referred to Alderman Thurston to investigate and report. Alderman Ewen said that several complaints had been made to him recently about the Burns monument being dirty and hadly needed to be cleaned.
